The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 5. to Tuesday January 8. 1733.

Petersbourg, December 13, O. S.

M. Weſtphale, the Daniſh Envoy, who had reſided here near 20 Years, died the 11th Inſtant of an Apoplexy, it being the third Fit he had within theſe three Years. Old Count Levenwolde, who is now in Poland, is to return hither after King Auguſtus's Coronation; and M. Kiſerling, a Courland Gentleman, is to ſet out in a few Days from hence, to go and reſide in Poland as her Majeſty's Miniſter.

Berlin, Jan. 9, N. S. On Monday laſt the King of Pruſſia made his Will, and ſigned it in the Preſence of the Prince Royal, and ſeveral of his Miniſters of State, and General Officers. Major General St. Hypolite is ſet at Liberty. The King of Pruſſia went Yeſterday to Potzdam, as the Queen propoſes to do next Tueſday; and their Pruſſian Majeſties are not expected back before Eaſter.

Hague, Jan. 15, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland having reſumed their Aſſembly, had a Conference the 11th Inſtant with the States General on the preſent Situation of Affairs. They have ſince taken into Conſideration the Claims of the Prince of Orange, and appear to be ſo well diſpoſed towards him, that it is believed they will, before they ſeparate, join thoſe other five Provinces which have already conſented to the Delivery to his Highneſs of his Part of the Inheritance of the late King William. Letters from Oppelen of the 1ſt Inſtant give an Account, that the Elector of Saxony was arrived there in his Way to Tarnowitz, whither he deſigned to proceed on the 4th Inſtant. On the 24th of laſt Month a Detachment of Saxon Troops poſſeſſed themſelves of the City and Caſtle of Cracow without any Oppoſition.

Mint-Office, Jan. 7, 1733.

Attendance will be given at His Majeſty's Mint in the Tower of London, on Tueſdays and Fridays in the Forenoon in every Week, as uſual, for receiving of Broad Pieces, purſuant to His Majeſty's Proclamation, after the Rate of 4 l. 1 s. per Ounce, till the 20*th of February next incluſive; after which Day none can be received into the ſaid Office at the ſaid Rate, except ſuch as ſhall be certify'd upon Oath by the Collectors or Receivers of the Publick Revenues and Taxes, to have been actually received by them in their Collection on or before the ſaid* 20*th of February, and ſhall be tranſmitted to the Mint within a reaſonable Time from that Day.*

On Monday next, the 14*th of this Inſtant* January, the new Edition of THUANUS in Latin, in Seven Volumes in Folio, will be ready to be delivered to the Subſcribers, at Stationers-Hall, Ludgate-Street; where daily Attendance will be given for that Purpoſe, from Nine till Twelve in the Forenoon, and from Two in the Afternoon till Five.
